

Days 1/2
Wednesday 2nd of July

Barcelona

Wow, it's the start of the trip and what an amazing place to begin. It would be pretty hard not to be excited about Barcelona, as it has life vibrating throughout. However there is really only one place to be seen, and that's on Les Ramblas. If your into art, then the Gaudi's Sagrada Familia or Park Guell are a must. There will be plenty of time for shopping, eating or enjoying the sun. But be sure to save some energy, as Barcelona comes to life when the sun goes down.

For more information on Barcelona checkout

<http://www.barcelonaturisme.com/?go=jN7uAYLx/oIJaWVQCb4ZU93ygJVYLOpRQdvyIue/wAW6Ddhyhal0Y8JybdczumN4RSbo3CRL94sJBt7u1Kc=>

For more information on Gaudi's Sagrada Familia checkout

http://www.greatbuildings.com/buildings/Sagrada_Familia.html

For more information on Gaudi's Park Guell checkout

http://www.bluffton.edu/~sullivanm/spain/barcelona/audipark/audipark.html

Days 3/4
Friday 4th of July

Barcelona to Valencia

The speed at which Valencia is transforming itself into a vibrant cosmopolitan city is nothing short of lighting. The new opera house is drawing people from all over the world with its stunning design. Whilst the city organisers are busy with hosting events such as the 2007 Americas Cup. If it's a party your after then Valencia has that to, boasting some of the best night life to be found anywhere in Europe. Our accommodation tonight is on the town square, so this is your chance, if you don't know anything about Valencia, then you soon will!

For more information on Valencia checkout

<http://www.valenciavalencia.com/sights-guide/sights-in-valencia.htm>

For more information on Valencia's Opera House checkout

<http://www.andante.com/article/article.cfm?id=26066>

For more information on Valencia's night life checkout

<http://www.valenciavalencia.com/nightlife-guide/nightlife-in-valencia.htm>

Day 5
Sunday 6th July

Valencia to Granada

Architectural beauty is just one why to describe Granada. Set high in the Sierra Nevada, Granada is home of the last Moorish strong hold in Europe. An army of 150,000 troops held a siege for 7 months in 1491, until the keys for the city were finally handed over. Now we have the chance to visit the stunning palace of Alhambra, a UNESCO world heritage site. There is only one night here before we step onto Africa.

For more information Granada checkout

<http://www.spainguides.com/granada.html>

For more information on Alhambra palace checkout

http://www.turgranada.es/cultural-monumental/cultural-monumental-nivel3.php?id_seccion=509&tipo=secciones

Days 6/7
Monday 7th July

Granada to Tangier (Morocco)

For anyone that hasn't yet been to Africa then today is going to be special. As we drive along the southern coast of Spain we maybe able to see Africa in the distance. It's only a short journey over on our super-fast ferry. Our accommodation here is right on the beach, giving you direct access to the Mediterranean Sea for a swim. After a day on the beach its time to head to town and enjoy the markets or dinner.

For more information on life in Tangier and Morocco checkout

<http://www.guardian.co.uk/travel/2001/nov/10/morocco.guardiansaturdaytravelsection>

Day 8
Wednesday 9th July

Tangier to Sevilla

It's only a short drive to Sevilla. Whilst most cities in Spain have a Plaza Espana, Sevilla's truly stands out as being one of the most beautiful. In fact the Plaza is so stunning it was used in the star wars films. Our hotel is right in the old town, allowing you to see this stunning city in your own time. Sevilla was home of the 1992 world expo and has a perfect mix between the old and the new.

For more information on Sevilla checkout

<http://www.aboutsevilla.com/sevilla/towns-sevilla.asp>

For more information on Sevilla's Plaza Espana checkout

<http://www.travelingspain.com/sevilla/espana.htm>

Days 9/10
Thursday 10th July

Sevilla to Lagos

Its time to hit the beach again, and maybe see how you are on the surfboard as we are heading to Lagos and even more importantly amazing Portugal. The slave trade history still lies under the surface, but has now been replaced by a fun summer party location. You will have a complete day to do what you please, and there is plenty of options. Will you hire a car and travel the coast, sit on the beach or get wet kite boarding, Lagos really has it all to choose from! With our accommodation situated in the old town its only 5 minutes to the beach, bars or restaurants.

For more information on Lagos checkout
<http://algarvenet.com/locations/outras/lagos1.asp>

Days 11/12
Saturday 11th July

Lagos to Lisbon

The charming streets of Lisbon are best discovered by tram, that is until Friday and Saturday nights when the Bairro Alto district turns into a street party only accessible by foot. You won't find this kind of partying anywhere else! However Lisbon is more than just a party town. Many journeys to discover the modern world were first launched from Lisbon's harbour, as we will discover when we visit the 16th century Belem tower a UNESCO world heritage site.

For more information on Lisbon checkout
<http://www.visitlisboa.com/>

For more information on Belem tower checkout
<http://www.guide-to-castles-of-europe.com/belem-tower.html>

Days 13/14
Monday 14th July

Lisbon to Porto

Today we will discover Portugal and you will discover that it is absolutely amazing. Porto, Portugal's second largest city, is totally unique and has to be seen to be believed. The old town buildings are covered in beautifully colour tiles, and is set on the opposite side of the river to the port warehouses. This UNESCO world heritage city is simply beautiful. Tonight our accommodation is absolutely central being found on the town square. So wander down to the river and enjoy dinner in one of the fantastic restaurants.

For more information about Porto checkout
<http://europeforvisitors.com/europe/countries/portugal/porto.htm>

For more information about Porto's Port checkout
<http://www.intowine.com/port.html>

Day 15
Wednesday 16th July

Porto to Santiago de Compostela

You simply won't believe our accommodation tonight. We are staying in a 17th Century monastery (still used in winter by the priests) right in the heart of Santiago a UNESCO world heritage city. The city is covered in beautiful old buildings, which are a welcome sight to thousands of pilgrims that make the long journey from their homes by foot. Santiago is renowned as being the seafood capital of Spain. So once again the night is yours for great wine and cheap tapas.

For more information on Santiago de Compostela checkout
<http://www.santiagoturismo.com/ciudad/>

For more information about Santiago's amazing food checkout
<http://travel.nytimes.com/2007/03/11/travel/11Bite.html>

Day 16
Thursday 17th July

Santiago de Compostela to Salamanca

Today we are off to Salamanca, the 3rd oldest university town in Europe. This is truly a student town with students travelling from all around the world to study here. Our hotel tonight is in the old town, so its time to explore this ancient city. Both Avila and Salamanca are amazing cities, truly deserving their place on the UNESCO world heritage list. It is easy to see why young students travel from all around the world to study here!

For more information on Salamanca checkout
<http://www.salamanca-university.org/Salamanca.htm>

Days 17/18
Friday 18th July

Salamanca to Madrid (via Avila)

It's an early stop today at the fortified city of Avila for lunch, before heading onto Madrid. Landing in Madrid on a Friday night gives us another chance to enjoy the Spanish party culture. If that is not your thing then Madrid is yours to explore. Madrid has a cosmopolitan lifestyle that offers everything you could imagine. Since our accommodation is right in the middle of it all you won't have to look far either.

For more information on things to do in Madrid checkout
http://travel.yahoo.com/p-travelguide-2791665-madrid_things_to_do-i

For more information on Avila checkout
<http://www.cyberspain.com/ciudades-patrimonio/fotos/avimuri.htm>

Days 19/20/21
Sunday 20th July

Madrid to San Sebastian (via Segovia)

Sun, sand and surf is on the menu for the next 3 days in this Spanish party town. Mix that with adventure activities and free surf lessons and you have got 3 fantastic days in San Sebastian. We have extended our stay here so that you don't miss out on anything. Did you know that San Sebastian has the most Michelin Stars per capita of any city in the world! If food, adventure sports and Spanish parties are your thing then San Sebastian is a one-stop shop.

But before get there we visit Segovia, a UNESCO world heritage roman aqueduct, that was constructed around 50 AD.

For more information on Segovia's aqueduct checkout
http://www.wmf.org/resources/sitepages/spain_segovia_aqueduct.html

For more information on San Sebastian's Michelin Star restaurants checkout
http://www.sallys-place.com/travel/europe/san_sebastian.htm

For more information on optional activities checkout our Trip Info page.

Day 22
Wednesday 23rd July

San Sebastian to Bordeaux

Its another short trip today as we head to Bordeaux, capital of the French wine industry. We will spend the night in this beautiful UNESCO world heritage city. The night is yours, so make sure that you enjoy the amazing French cuisine. Our accommodation is in the city centre, so you won't have to be in a hurry to do anything!

For more information on Bordeaux checkout
<http://www.bordeaux-tourisme.com/uk/decouvrir/unesco.html>

Day 23
Thursday 24th July

Bordeaux to Mont St Michel

The amazing views of Mont St Michel is what awaits us today. This UNESCO world heritage city is absolutely beautiful. Except for the entrance way to the island, little has changed since medieval times. The first sight of the Mont will defiantly be one of those “ooh aah” moments. After visiting the Mont we supply a traditional French dinner at our accommodation at the course-way entrance.

For more information on Mont St Michel checkout
http://www.ot-montsaintmichel.com/accueil_gb.htm

Day 24
Friday 25th July

Mont St Michel to Bayeux (via the D-Day beaches and the American Cemetery)

This morning we head to the American cemetery, made famous in the Steven Speilberg movie Saving Private Ryan. The guns maybe quiet but the memory of what happened here is living on strong. Then its off to Arromanches, and the 360 degree museum to discover what actually happened on these beaches. Our accommodation tonight is in Bayeux’s old city centre. Bayeux is famous for its 11th century UNESCO listed tapestry depicting life in the middle ages. Measuring at almost 70 metres and 350 kilograms there is nothing else quite like it anywhere else in the world. The last night of the trip is then yours to relax or have a few drinks with your new friends.

For more information on the 360 degree museum checkout
<http://www.arromanches360.com/eng/index.php>

For more information on the American Cemetery checkout
<http://www.abmc.gov/cemeteries/cemeteries/no.php>

For more information on the Bayeux tapestry checkout
<http://www.alibris.co.uk/search/books/qwork/7950818/used/The Bayeux Tapestry>

Day 25
Saturday 26th July

Bayeux to London

Leaving Bayeux we have arranged your transport back to London via ferry and bus.
The drop off point shall be at Hammer Smith station.

<http://www.bluffton.edu/~sullivanm/spain/barcelona/gaudipark/gaudipark.html>

Days 1/2
Wednesday 2nd of July

Barcelona

Wow, it's the start of the trip and what an amazing place to begin. It would be pretty hard not to be excited about Barcelona, as it has life vibrating throughout. However there is really only one place to be seen, and that's on Les Ramblas. If your into art, then the Gaudi's Sagrada Familia or Park Guell are a must. There will be plenty of time for shopping, eating or enjoying the sun. But be sure to save some energy, as our hostel and Barcelona come to life when the sun goes down.

For more information on Barcelona checkout

<http://www.barcelonaturisme.com/?go=jN7uAYLx/oIJaWVQCb4ZU93ygJVYLOpRQdvyIue/wAW6Ddhyhal0Y8JybdczumN4RSbo3CRL94sJBt7u1Kc=>

For more information on Gaudi's Sagrada Familia checkout

http://www.greatbuildings.com/buildings/Sagrada_Familia.html

For more information on Gaudi's Park Guell checkout

<http://www.bluffton.edu/~sullivanm/spain/barcelona/gaudipark/gaudipark.html>

Days 3/4
Friday 4th of July

Barcelona to Valencia

The speed at which Valencia is transforming itself into a vibrant cosmopolitan city is nothing short of lighting. The new opera house is drawing people from all over the world with its stunning design. Whilst the city organisers are busy with hosting events such as the 2007 Americas Cup. If it's a party your after then Valencia has that to, boasting some of the best night life to be found anywhere in Europe. Our accommodation tonight is on the town square, so this is your chance, if you don't know anything about Valencia, then you soon will!

For more information on Valencia checkout

<http://www.valenciavalencia.com/sights-guide/sights-in-valencia.htm>

For more information on Valencia's Opera House checkout

<http://www.andante.com/article/article.cfm?id=26066>

For more information on Valencia's night life checkout

<http://www.valenciavalencia.com/nightlife-guide/nightlife-in-valencia.htm>

Day 5
Sunday 6th July

Valencia to Granada

Architectural beauty is just one why to describe Granada. Set high in the Sierra Nevada, Granada is home of the last Moorish strong hold in Europe. An army of 150,000 troops held a siege for 7 months in 1491, until the keys for the city were finally handed over. Now we have the chance to visit the stunning palace of Alhambra, a UNESCO world heritage site. There is only one night here before we step onto Africa.

For more information Granada checkout

<http://www.spainguides.com/granada.html>

For more information on Alhambra palace checkout

http://www.turgranada.es/cultural-monumental/cultural-monumental-nivel3.php?id_seccion=509&tipo=secciones

Days 6/7
Monday 7th July

Granada to Tangier (Morocco)

For anyone that hasn't yet been to Africa then today is going to be special. As we drive along the southern coast of Spain we maybe able to see Africa in the distance. It's only a short journey over on our super-fast ferry. Our accommodation here is right on the beach, giving you direct access to the Mediterranean Sea for a swim. After a day on the beach its time to head to town and enjoy the markets or dinner.

For more information on life in Tangier and Morocco checkout

<http://www.guardian.co.uk/travel/2001/nov/10/morocco.guardiansaturdaytravelsection>

Day 8
Wednesday 9th July

Tangier to Sevilla

It's only a short drive to Sevilla. Whilst most cities in Spain have a Plaza Espana, Sevilla's truly stands out as being one of the most beautiful. In fact the Plaza is so stunning it was used in the star wars films. Our hotel is right in the old town, allowing you to see this stunning city in your own time. Sevilla was home of the 1992 world expo and has a perfect mix between the old and the new.

For more information on Sevilla checkout

<http://www.aboutsevilla.com/sevilla/towns-sevilla.asp>

For more information on Sevilla's Plaza Espana checkout

<http://www.travelinginspain.com/sevilla/espana.htm>

Days 9/10
Thursday 10th July

Sevilla to Lagos

Its time to hit the beach again, and maybe see how you are on the surfboard as we are heading to Lagos and even more importantly amazing Portugal. The slave trade history still lies under the surface, but has now been replaced by a fun summer party location. You will have a complete day to do what you please, and there is plenty of options. Will you hire a car and travel the coast, sit on the beach or get wet kite boarding, Lagos really has it all to choose from! With our accommodation situated in the old town its only 5 minutes to the beach, bars or restaurants.

For more information on Lagos checkout
<http://algarvenet.com/locations/outras/lagos1.asp>

Days 11/12
Saturday 11th July

Lagos to Lisbon

The charming streets of Lisbon are best discovered by tram, that is until Friday and Saturday nights when the Bairro Alto district turns into a street party only accessible by foot. You won't find this kind of partying anywhere else! However Lisbon is more than just a party town. Many journeys to discover the modern world were first launched from Lisbon's harbour, as we will discover when we visit the 16th century Belem tower a UNESCO world heritage site.

For more information on Lisbon checkout
<http://www.visitlisboa.com/>

For more information on Belem tower checkout
<http://www.guide-to-castles-of-europe.com/belem-tower.html>

Days 13/14
Monday 14th July

Lisbon to Porto

Today we will discover Portugal and you will discover that it is absolutely amazing. Porto, Portugal's second largest city, is totally unique and has to be seen to be believed. The old town buildings are covered in beautifully colour tiles, and is set on the opposite side of the river to the port warehouses. This UNESCO world heritage city is simply beautiful. Tonight our accommodation is absolutely central being found on the town square. So wander down to the river and enjoy dinner in one of the fantastic restaurants.

For more information about Porto checkout
<http://europeforvisitors.com/europe/countries/portugal/porto.htm>

For more information about Porto's Port checkout
<http://www.intowine.com/port.html>

Day 15
Wednesday 16th July

Porto to Santiago de Compostela

You simply won't believe our accommodation tonight. We are staying in a 17th Century monastery (still used in winter by the priests) right in the heart of Santiago a UNESCO world heritage city. The city is covered in beautiful old buildings, which are a welcome sight to thousands of pilgrims that make the long journey from their homes by foot. Santiago is renowned as being the seafood capital of Spain. So once again the night is yours for great wine and cheap tapas.

For more information on Santiago de Compostela checkout
<http://www.santiagoturismo.com/ciudad/>

For more information about Santiago's amazing food checkout
<http://travel.nytimes.com/2007/03/11/travel/11Bite.html>

Day 16
Thursday 17th July

Santiago de Compostela to Salamanca

Today we are off to Salamanca, the 3rd oldest university town in Europe. This is truly a student town with students travelling from all around the world to study here. Our hotel tonight is in the old town, so its time to explore this ancient city. Both Avila and Salamanca are amazing cities, truly deserving their place on the UNESCO world heritage list. It is easy to see why young students travel from all around the world to study here!

For more information on Salamanca checkout
<http://www.salamanca-university.org/Salamanca.htm>

Days 17/18
Friday 18th July

Salamanca to Madrid (via Avila)

It's an early stop today at the fortified city of Avila for lunch, before heading onto Madrid. Landing in Madrid on a Friday night gives us another chance to enjoy the Spanish party culture. If that is not your thing then Madrid is yours to explore. Madrid has a cosmopolitan lifestyle that offers everything you could imagine. Since our accommodation is right in the middle of it all you won't have to look far either.

For more information on things to do in Madrid checkout
http://travel.yahoo.com/p-travelguide-2791665-madrid_things_to_do-i

For more information on Avila checkout
<http://www.cyberspain.com/ciudades-patrimonio/fotos/avimuri.htm>

Days 19/20/21
Sunday 20th July

Madrid to San Sebastian (via Segovia)

Sun, sand and surf is on the menu for the next 3 days in this Spanish party town. Mix that with adventure activities and free surf lessons and you have got 3 fantastic days in San Sebastian. We have extended our stay here in a centrally located hostel so that you don't miss out on anything. Did you know that San Sebastian has the most Michelin Stars per capita of any city in the world! If food, adventure sports and Spanish parties are your thing then San Sebastian is a one-stop shop.

But before get there we visit Segovia, a UNESCO world heritage roman aqueduct, that was constructed around 50 AD.

For more information on Segovia's aqueduct checkout
http://www.wmf.org/resources/sitepages/spain_segovia_aqueduct.html

For more information on San Sebastian's Michelin Star restaurants checkout
http://www.sallys-place.com/travel/europe/san_sebastian.htm

For more information on optional activities checkout our Trip Info page.

Day 22
Wednesday 23rd July

San Sebastian to Bordeaux

Its another short trip today as we head to Bordeaux, capital of the French wine industry. We will spend the night in this beautiful UNESCO world heritage city. The night is yours, so make sure that you enjoy the amazing French cuisine. Our accommodation is in the city centre, so you won't have to be in a hurry to do anything!

For more information on Bordeaux checkout
<http://www.bordeaux-tourisme.com/uk/decouvrir/unesco.html>

Day 23
Thursday 24th July

Bordeaux to Mont St Michel

The amazing views of Mont St Michel is what awaits us today. This UNESCO world heritage city is absolutely beautiful. Except for the entrance way to the island, little has changed since medieval times. The first sight of the Mont will defiantly be one of those “ooh aah” moments. After visiting the Mont we supply a traditional French dinner at our accommodation at the course-way entrance.

For more information on Mont St Michel checkout
http://www.ot-montsaintmichel.com/accueil_gb.htm

Day 24
Friday 25th July

Mont St Michel to Bayeux (via the D-Day beaches and the American Cemetery)

This morning we head to the American cemetery, made famous in the Steven Speilberg movie Saving Private Ryan. The guns maybe quiet but the memory of what happened here is living on strong. Then its off to Arromanches, and the 360 degree museum to discover what actually happened on these beaches. Our accommodation tonight is in Bayeux’s old city centre. Bayeux is famous for its 11th century UNESCO listed tapestry depicting life in the middle ages. Measuring at almost 70 metres and 350 kilograms there is nothing else quite like it anywhere else in the world. The last night of the trip is then yours to relax or have a few drinks with your new friends.

For more information on the 360 degree museum checkout
<http://www.arromanches360.com/eng/index.php>

For more information on the American Cemetery checkout
<http://www.abmc.gov/cemeteries/cemeteries/no.php>

For more information on the Bayeux tapestry checkout
<http://www.alibris.co.uk/search/books/qwork/7950818/used/The Bayeux Tapestry>

Day 25
Saturday 26th July

Bayeux to London

Leaving Bayeux we have arranged your transport back to London via ferry and bus.
The drop off point shall be at Hammer Smith station.

<http://www.bluffton.edu/~sullivanm/spain/barcelona/gaudipark/gaudipark.html>